CLAIMS 1-8, 10, 12-21, 23-25 AND 27-34 ARE PENDING

1. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

2. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-8, 10, 12-21, 23-25 and 27-34 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

3. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claims 24 and 25 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter.

These claims are directed to a computer program product embodied on a computer-readable medium, as opposed to such a product embodied on computer-readable recording medium. This further limitation is required because the terms in the art have come to include carrier waves and other transmission media, which are intangible.

4. Claims 1, 8, 12, 13, 14, 21, 24 and 25 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Fischer (US 2002/0010638).

As to claim 1, Fischer teaches a method in a data processing system (see FIG 1) for managing information (i.e., e-commerce sales) comprising:

receiving information from a plurality of users; (see FIG 1. The users are buyers who input information in the form of orders for goods. Multiple users reside in the system.)

storing information to form stored information (the order from the user is stored information stored at the user's computer and is sent by e-mail to the vendor. See steps 52 and 54 in FIG 4)

receiving a request to remove selected information from the stored information from a user within the set of users (step 64 in FIG 4, "review order"), wherein the selected information is received in response to a transaction involving the user (the selected information derives from a user order, which is readable as a transaction by the user)

responsive to receiving the request, determining if the selected information is no longer required for the transaction (step 66 in FIG 4, decision is made to augment or change order, which includes deleting items, see page 3, column 1, line 8)

responsive to the selected information no longer being required for the transaction, removing the selected non-required information about the stored information (step 68 in FIG 4, modify the order)

The elements of claims 8, 12, 13, 14, 21, 24 and 25 are rejected in the analysis above and these claims are rejected on that basis.

5. Claims 2-7, 10, 15-20, 23, and 27-34 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

6. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Wayne Amsbury whose telephone number is 571-272-4015. The examiner can normally be reached on M-F 6-18:30 FIRST WEEK.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Safet Metjahic can be reached on 571-272-4023. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 703-872-9306.
